

YOUTHS AT STATE CAMP APPRECIATE HOME NEWSPAPERS

That home town boys are interested in local news is expressed in a letter from the CCC camp at Loganton, Pa., at which place a number of Canonsburg youths are enrolled. The letter is as follows:

"We, the boys of Canonsburg and the surrounding communities, who are members of Company 368, CCC, are sending these few lines to express our appreciation for The Daily Notes which you are sending to Walter Berzinski of this company.

"We are all interested and like to read the news from back home.

"We also hope you will continue to send the paper."

The communication is signed by Walter Berzinski, Joseph G. Graytock, Charles Sekura, Mike P. Wacholak, John Moscovich, Frank Sedlitsky, of Canonsburg; Gilbert Leadbitter, Henderson; Steve Babnick, Hills Station; Charles Snead, Venetia and Charles L. Weaver of Houston.
